COUNCIL FOR A PARLIAMENT OF THE WORLD'S RELIGIONS: SERIES 2

TOTAL PROCESSED FOOTAGE: 5.5 FEET

ACCESSION NUMBERS: 1998.32, 2000.18, 2000.43

NARRATIVE:

The Board of Trustees of the Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions designated DePaul University the repository of the Archives of the Parliament in 1993.

The first Parliament of the World's Religions was convened in Chicago during the 1893 World's Fair. One hundred years later, a second Parliament was held in Chicago. The third Parliament gathering was held in Cape Town, South Africa in 1999.

The organization of the second series is similar to that of the first. General papers and correspondence are located at the beginning of the collection, followed by publications and publicity for the event. The collection includes biographies and administrative papers which concentrate mainly on fundraising. The bulk of the collection is made up of planning documents which are divided into the following categories: general, cosponsors, exhibits, gifts, programs, registration, and venues. The general planning papers include agendas and minutes. Series two also contains presentation information, ongoing initiatives, and programs inspired by the CPWR. Photographs document the programs, presentations, and participants in the Parliament. Lastly, the collection incorporates accessories and memorabilia from the event.
