The Chip Rowe Collection is an assortment of zines created between years 1990-1998 and interviews conducted by Chip Rowe in 1996. Interviews are organized alphabetically by zine title. Interviews are made up of documentation sent via mail or e-mail by Chip Rowe to the creators of various zines. These interviews later appear in Rowe's book, The Book of Zines. Zines within the collections are categorized as Miscellaneous or Resource and arranged alphabetically by zine title. Miscellaneous zines are on a variety of topics, while Resource zines contain zine listings, reviews, and contact information.
