

DePaul University Archives: Underground Press Conference Collection

Underground Press Conference Collection

1994 to 1996

Quantity: 1 full size box (4 inches)

History

The Underground Press Conference Collection contains various materials gathered from the Underground Press Conference held in Chicago from 1994-1996. The Underground Press Conference was initially created to bring together editors, publishers, writers, and educators to discuss the role of the underground press in what was then considered a “new era of ‘zines, corporate links, and interactive technology.”

Description

This collection spans the years 1994-1996 and is arranged alphabetically by folder title.

Related Collections

See Chicago Great Lakes Underground Press Collection, boxes 1-9

Processed

June 2006, Renee C. Bartley

Box	Folder Title	Date
1	Articles and Brochures	1994-1996
	Correspondence	1994-1996
	Ephemera	1995
	Information Packet	1995
	Signage	[1995]
	U-Direct, “Official Zine of the UPC”	1994-1996